Briefing

18. (Unclassified - THW) BRIEFING Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, called to say that the Committee could not schedule the briefing by the DCI on the situation in Zaire on 1 June and asked if we could do it earlier. After explaining the various briefings the DCI was giving on this subject, it was decided the Committee would schedule the briefing for 8 June at 1:30 p.m.

19. (Unclassified - THW) LIAISON Called Emily Thurber, in the office of Senator Alan D. Cranston (D., Calif.), and asked her if in light of the Secretary of Defense's unavailability for the lunch scheduled for 13 June whether Senator Cranston wanted the DCI to attend anyway. She then discussed the matter with Senator Cranston and called back to say that he still wanted the DCI to appear.
